Sir/Madam,

This refers to your application and subsequent interaction. We are pleased to offer you an appointment as Assistant Professor, Department of Electronics & Communication Engineering subject to the following terms and conditions

1. Position

Assistant Professor, Department of Electronics & Communication Engineering

2. Posting

You will be posted at Netaji Subhas Engineering College. Your schedule working days will be as per norms of the institution.

3. Joining & Reporting

You are advised to join on or after 01.04.2016. You will report to the HOD, Electronics & Communication Engineering, Netaji Subhas Engineering College, or any other supervisor which will be communicated to you subsequently.

4. Role & Responsibilities

You will work as faculty member in the engineering college / institute as per directives of the Competent Authority.

Your roles and responsibilities including working hours as faculty will be guided as per AICTE and WBUT norms.

In addition / substitution to this, the authority may give you the other assignments such as (but not limited to) developing course materials, training materials, R&D, consultancy etc.

5. Tenure

You will be under contract for two years from the date of joining. However your performance will be reviewed on completion of one year service. On successful completion of two years of service, further extension of service/regularization of service will be considered depending on your satisfactory performance reviewed by the competent authority.

6. Separation

If required, your services are terminable by either party giving one month notice to the other or salary in lieu of notice. Either party need not assign any reasons for such termination. However in case of breach of the disciplinary rules of the organization or misconduct or breaking the confidentiality of the organization, your services are terminable with immediate effect in addition to further legal actions if deemed to be suitable. In such event, it would not be necessary for the organization to give you either any notice or salary in lieu of notice whatsoever.

Kolkata - 700 008.

Dear Sir,

Sub. : Lecturer in Mechanical Engineering.

We have the pleasure in appointing you as a Lecturer in the scale of pay of Rs.8,000-275-13,500/- for the Department of Mechanical Engineering at this College w.e.f. 01.10.2001; your initial basic having been fixed at Rs. 8,000/-; your gross emoluments will come to Rs. 12,200/- including all admissible allowances as per rules, per month.

You would be on probation for one year, during which period your service may be terminated on one month's notice from either side. The question of confirmation of your service at this College will be taken up at the appropriate time provided your performance during the probation period is satisfactory. You will be governed by the service rules of the College now existing or as amended from time to time.

Note that your services may be requisitioned by any other department/departments of the College during your tenure at the College in the interest of the students and/or under any exigency without any additional remuneration.

The duplicate letter of offer may please be signed and sent to the College within 7 days from the date of receipt intimating your date of joining, failing which our offer would stand withdrawn.

You are to submit your joining report on the day you join and submit all the original certificates/instruments on the day for verification by the College office. In case you are in employment a 'release order' from the present employer has to be produced, too.

It is a growing institution, has a homogeneous team of faculty and is located in serene surroundings. You are welcome to the family of Netaji Subhash Engineering College, Garia.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(Debasis Barman)

Madam,

This refers to your application and subsequent interaction. We are pleased to offer you an appointment as Assistant Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position

Assistant Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering

2. Posting

You will be posted at Netaji Subhash Engineering College. Your schedule working days will be as per norms of the institution.

3. Joining & Reporting

You are advised to join from 1st July, 2013. You will report to the HOD, Netaji Subhash Engineering College or any other supervisor which will be communicated to you subsequently.

4. Role & Responsibilities

You will work as faculty member in the engineering college / institute as per directives of the Competent Authority.

Your roles and responsibilities including working hours as faculty will be guided as per AICTE norms.

In addition / substitution to this, the authority may give you the other assignments such as (but not limited to) developing course materials, training materials, R&D, consultancy etc.

5. Tenure

You will be under contract for 2 (Two) years from the date of joining. However your performance will be reviewed on completion of one year service. On successful completion of one year of service, further regularization of service will be considered depending on your satisfactory performance reviewed by the competent authority.

6. Separation

If required, your services are terminable by either party giving one month notice to the other or salary in lieu of notice. Either party need not assign any reasons for such termination. However in case of breach of the disciplinary rules of the organization or misconduct or breaking the confidentiality of the organization, your services are terminable with immediate effect in addition to further legal actions if deemed to be suitable. In such event, it would not be necessary for the organization to give you either any notice or salary in lieu of notice whatsoever.

Your roles and responsibilities including working hours as faculty will be guided as per AICTE and WBUT norms.

In addition / substitution to this, the authority may give you the other assignments such as (but not limited to) developing course materials, training materials, R&D, consultancy etc.

5. Tenure

You will be under contract for two (2) year from the date of joining. Your performance will be reviewed on completion of one (1) year tenure. On successful completion of two (2) year of service, further extension of service/regularization of service will be considered depending on your satisfactory performance reviewed by the competent authority.

6. Termination

If required, your services are terminable by either party giving one month notice to the other or salary in lieu of notice. Either party need not assign any reasons for such termination.

However in case of breach of the disciplinary rules of the organization or misconduct or breaking the confidentiality of the organization, your services are terminable with immediate effect in addition to further legal actions if deemed to be suitable. In such event, it would not be necessary for the organization to give you either any notice or salary in lieu of notice whatsoever.

Sir/Madam,

This refers to your application and subsequent interaction. We are pleased to offer you an appointment as Assistant Professor, Department of Basic Science & Humanities subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Position

Assistant Professor, Department of Basic Science & Humanities.

2. Posting

You will be posted at Netaji Subhas Engineering College. Your schedule working days will be as per norms of the institution.

3. Joining & Reporting

You are advised to join on or after 01.09.2015. You will report to the HOD, Basic Science & Humanities, Netaji Subhas Engineering College, or any other supervisor which will be communicated to you subsequently.

4. Role & Responsibilities

You will work as faculty member in the engineering college / institute as per directives of the Competent Authority.

Your roles and responsibilities including working hours as faculty will be guided as per AICTE and WBUT norms.

In addition / substitution to this, the authority may give you the other assignments such as (but not limited to) developing course materials, training materials, R&D, consultancy etc.

5. Tenure

You will be under contract for two (2) year from the date of joining. Your performance will be reviewed on completion of one (1) year service. On successful completion of two (2) year of service, further extension of service/regularization of service will be considered depending on your satisfactory performance reviewed by the competent authority.

6. Separation

If required, your services are terminable by either party giving one month notice to the other or salary in lieu of notice. Either party need not assign any reasons for such termination.

However in case of breach of the disciplinary rules of the organization or misconduct or breaking the confidentiality of the organization, your services are terminable with immediate effect in addition to further legal actions if deemed to be suitable. In such event, it would not be necessary for the organization to give you either any notice or salary in lieu of notice whatsoever.

You may be required to undertake travel for the work of the Institute as and when necessary.

8. Confidentiality

In the course of employment with the Institution, by virtue of the position held by you, you may acquire knowledge regarding the Institutions tailor made process, method of operation, marketing plan and operational practice or any other information which are not in the public domain. Such confidential knowledge however obtained by you, shall not be disclosed or allowed to be disclosed to other parties in the interest of the Institution / organization. Therefore you shall not, at any time thereafter, make available or accessible such confidential information to any other party directly or indirectly.

9. Emoluments

You will receive Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) per month as consolidated salary. No other allowances will be admissible.

10. General

1. You will be bound by any rules, regulations and orders of the Institutions promulgated time to time.
2. As this is a full time employment, you will not accept any other employment (Full or Part Time) during the employment period with us.
3. You should be always alive to the responsibilities, duties and dignities attached to this appointment and should conduct yourself accordingly. It is understood that you should not conduct yourself with raising of collective demands and shall not conduct yourself in any manner amounting to breach of confidence reposed in you or inconsistent with the position of responsibility occupied by you.
4. Any variation of the above terms and conditions will not be valid unless expressed in writing.
5. You are requested to give written consent if above terms are acceptable to you.

You are further advised to submit following documents at the time of joining

- a) Copies of degrees and mark sheets.
- b) Copy of age proof.
- c) A copy of CV.
